Born in China, Xiaolu Guo is a writer and filmmaker. Her feature She, a Chinese (2009) won the top award at the Locarno International Film Festival. The first of her novels to be written in English, A Concise Chinese-English Dictionary for Lovers, has been translated into 26 languages, and her 2017 memoir, Nine Continents, won the National Book Critics Circle Award for Autobiography. Her latest novel, A Lover's Discourse, in homage to Roland Barthes, has just come out this fall.

Xiaolu will be introduced by Professor Isolina Ballesteros. Her reading and conversation will be followed by a Q&A. Questions for her should be emailed to TranslatingtheFuture2020@gmail.com.
