

Upload Your Thesis to CUNY Academic Works

Students whose theses are approved by Baruch College are invited and encouraged to submit their scholarship to CUNY Academic Works.

What is CUNY Academic Works?

- A repository of research, scholarship, and creative works produced by the CUNY community
- Content in CUNY Academic Works is freely available to everyone, and if someone searches your name or research topic using Google, it's likely your work will be in the search results!
- Once a work is posted to CUNY Academic Works, it cannot be changed or removed. Please check with your faculty advisor to see if there are any issues with sharing your work online.

How do I submit to it?

1. Create a new account using your Baruch College email and a password of your choice at: <http://academicworks.cuny.edu>
2. Select "Submit Research" on the left side of the page (in the "Author Corner" section) and then select "Student Theses" for Baruch
3. Read and accept the Submission Agreement. This agreement does not alter your copyright or any rights you have to your work.
4. Provide information about you and your work (title, abstract, etc.).
5. Upload your thesis file (must be a PDF or Word document)
6. Select "Submit." Your submission will go live within 48 hours, after approval.

For help or more info, contact:
Prof. Stephen Francoeur
Stephen.Francoeur@baruch.cuny.edu

Global and Local Impact

Content in CUNY Academic Works has been downloaded by people in every state and every country! Student works are some of the most popular content.